

Great news TaWS members!!! Our first general meeting is scheduled for Sunday, September 18, from 2 – 4 p.m. at St. Paul's United Methodist Church at the corner of Tharpe Street and Meridian Drive.

We are happy to announce our first featured artist Judith Nable who will do a demo for our group showing us how to bring a spontaneous development of a semi-abstract composition to life during our meeting. She will also bring finished paintings for you to ask questions about regarding the technique she uses.

Judith learned from her artist mother and had access to a large library of art history books; however, she believes that the hours alone in the studio painting is where personal style develops (instinct for color, balance, composition, etc., begin to harmonize).

Judith states, "It's time for artists to let loose and search out our own unique voices, styles and marks on paper. Realism to abstraction and all points in between. Creative growth is a great journey."

As a fan of her work, I can assure you that if you aren't familiar with Judith's work, you will be impressed and inspired by the wonderful color combinations, shapes and energy that is apparent in each painting. Don't miss this demo! It will get us back into the exciting world of experiencing new and different techniques.
